Pastor's Corner

God's love for the soul

God is so sad over the loss of one soul that He weeps! He weeps through His prophets over the loss of souls. The prophet Amos says: "When I had retired into the solitude and meditated upon the terrible number of crimes which God's own people committed every day, and when I saw that God's wrath was ready to descend upon them, and that the abyss of hell was about to open and devour them, then I gathered them together, and said to them, with bitter tears: Oh my children do you know what my occupation is by day and by night? It is to recall to my mind, in the bitterness of my heart, all your sins"...

The prophet Joel says: "Weep over the loss of souls, as a young wife who has just lost her husband, who was her only consolation, and who is exposed to all kinds of misfortune." We must realize how grievous the loss of a soul is to God! God's loves each created soul with an infinite love. Consider what it has cost Jesus Christ to save our souls. Consider His whole life, beginning with His lowly birth to His last breath on Calvary, all His suffering, infinite in value, and then we will see the value of our soul because all He did was the price paid to redeem our souls!

In Christ,
Fr. Jeff Fasching
