Pastor's Corner

God's infinite love

St. Paul asks: “Who can separate us from the love of Christ?” We ourselves are the only ones who can do this by our sins. The choice is ours. The soul is free either to love God or not to love Him. God has given our souls desires which can only be met in heaven and not in this present world! If we are given all the joys and treasures of this world, we will never be satisfied because God has created the soul for Himself. God alone is capable of satisfying all our longings. If we love God as we should, He will give us all our heart's desires. Finally, remember there is no action, no matter how small, that does not have the potential to give glory to God as long as we do it all for the love of Him! All our actions should glorify God!

In Christ,

Fr. Jeff Fasching
