Mass Candles

There are Mass candles in the back of church for you to take. These candles have been used during Mass and would make a nice addition to your prayer time at home.

Adoration Chapel

There are 2 hours open in the Adoration Chapel: every other Sunday at 6:00pm and 12:00 noon on Wednesday. Not sure you are unable to commit to every week? Would you consider sharing an hour with 1 or more Adorers? If this is something you would be interested in, contact Fr. Fasching, Rachel Gomez, or the parish office.

If you currently have an hour and will not be able to fulfill your hour, please try to find a substitute before calling the Chapel Coordinator. There is a list of substitutes on the bookcase above the adoration sign in sheet. On the back of the sheet is a list of all Adorers.

Facing temptation in prayer

The most common yet most hidden temptation is our lack of faith. It expresses itself less by declared incredulity than by our actual preferences. When we begin to pray, a thousand labors or cares thought to be urgent vie for priority; once again, it is the moment of truth for the heart: what is its real love? Sometimes we turn to the Lord as a last resort, but do we really believe he is? Sometimes we enlist the Lord as an ally, but our heart remains presumptuous. In each case, our lack of faith reveals that we do not yet share in the disposition of a humble heart: "Apart from me, you can do nothing (CCC 2732).

Another temptation, to which presumption opens the gate, is acedia. The spiritual writers understand by this a form of depression due to lax ascetical practice, decreasing vigilance, carelessness of heart. "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."²¹ The greater the height, the harder the fall. Painful as discouragement is, it is the reverse of presumption. The humble are not surprised by their distress; it leads them to trust more, to hold fast in constancy (CCC 2733).

When you go to pray, always beg God for humility and trust in Him. Ask Him for these things each day!

In Christ,
Fr. Jeff Fasching
