What to do with my blessed palms?

Whatever you do, don't throw them away! According to the Code of Canon Law, blessed items are not to be discarded in a trash can, but treated with respect (cf. #1171) Blessed Palms should be burned or buried. This type of disposal honors their sacred purpose and returns them to the earth in a dignified way. Over the years many people have used palm branches to decorate their homes. It could be as simple as tucking them behind a religious painting or crucifix, or as complex as a making them into a palm rose. For more ideas check out CatholicLiving.com. (Philip Kosloski)

Salvation cntd...

The following is part of the letter from the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith entitled Placuit Deo and addressed to "the Bishops of the Catholic Church on Certain Aspects of Christian Salvation," it states clearly:

The place where we receive the salvation brought by Jesus is the Church, the community of those who, having been incorporated into this new order of relationship begun by Christ, can receive the fullness of the Spirit of Christ...Salvation consists in being incorporated into a communion of persons that participates in the communion of the Trinity.

At the end of this letter Pope Francis approved and ordered its publication in February of 2018. There is no getting around the necessity of the Church for salvation. Those who are saved are incorporated into the Church Triumphant in Heaven, where there is one faith and one religion, namely the Catholic faith. There is no Mormon, Presbyterian, or Lutheran faith in heaven. There are no religions like Hinduism or Buddhism. The Catholic Church and She alone is the sole means of salvation, so ordained by Jesus Christ Himself.

In Christ,
 Fr. Jeff Fasching

The Catholic Church is necessary for salvation

The Catholic Church is unique. It is superior to all other faiths and absolutely necessary for salvation. This is a dogma of the Catholic Church, despite the fact that catholicism is often viewed as one choice among many due to decades of watered-down catechesis and formation. Many people simply assume everyone they know goes to Heaven when they die.

On the contrary, Tradition, Church Fathers, Doctors of the Church, saints, mystics and popes have in fact often taught that the vast majority of humanity is damned. We cannot simply ignore the weight of 2000 years of deep reflection and meditation by the holiest and greatest minds in the history of the world! Outside the Church there is no salvation.

This means that the Catholic Church, established by the Son of God, was so established to be the sole vehicle by which men may be brought to the Beatific Vision. There is not another way, or other ways or religions. Since God is one there is only one way. We are living in an age where we are told to be tolerant and non-judgmental of other's beliefs. We are not to hurt anyone's "feelings." We must realize that telling the truth is in fact a virtue and not to do so is a sin.

The dogma of no salvation outside the Catholic Church goes straight to the heart of the spiritual life. Our Lord established the Church and the sacraments to provide a sacramental life of grace for His followers. We utilize the sacraments to live and maintain a state of grace so that we may also leave this life in a state of grace.
