Christmas & Stewardship

Christmas Day has come & gone but the Christmas season is still here. The promise of Christmas is a promise of new life & new hope - its a promise that never ends. Even though Jesus came two thousand years ago, he still comes to us today. He comes through the sacraments, through his word in scripture. He comes in the whisperings of our conscience & in answered prayers. And he comes in the people & situations we encounter every single day. Don't be afraid of asking him for the "Christmas present" of seeing him work powerfully in our lives. As we begin the new year, let's remember Christ's promise & look to be his disciples as we prepare our gifts of stewardship for him.

Mass Intention

Dorothy McGinn's name was inadvertently left off the Mass Intention on Dec. 24th. I sincerely apologize for this error.
