Mary

The Blessed Virgin Mary, as the Mother of God, holds a high place in the work of our sanctification. We must therefore strive to always live intimately with her. If we want to live with Mary and love her as our Mother, we must keep her always in our thoughts. We should have images of her in our homes and pray the Holy Rosary together as families. Mary sees us. She knows our needs and helps us with her powerful intercession whenever we call upon her with faith! We should contemplate her infinite beauty and imitate her life. Christ alone is the “Way” that leads to the Father, but nobody is more like Jesus than Mary. The more we strive to imitate Mary, the more quickly we become better followers of Christ! Mary is the most perfect image of Christ. Since Christ came to us through Mary, it is fitting that we should go to Him through her.

In the words of Saint John Bosco: “Don't be afraid. Our Lady will send us all that is necessary.”

In Christ,

Fr. Jeff Fasching
